Sweetheart Wifie:-

Received your darling little letter of Sunday and sure was happy to read that you had somewhat more little time that when company came. I can hardly blame you for writing a little bit when a kiddo like Helen is around. She sure must be a pretty little baby. Certainly wish I could see her.

All I did Sunday was to write my usual letter to ~~letter~~ you and then go from one picture show to another. Next Sunday I expect I'll go out with Uncle Morris and try and locate some rooms. Believe me, honey love, you can hardly believe how happy I am at the thought that soon, very soon, with God's help, you will be here with me! So far as having all my bachelor's sports, I can tell you I've had mine years & years ago, all I want now is my baby wifie. I can assure you that my good times will only come when you and I will have them together. You ask me, honey love, to tell you how much I love you. Tut tut, that is impossible, for my love for you is truly beyond description. Love you! Honey love, my whole life is centered around you! My whole being, heart and soul, ~~is~~ at your disposal! My ambition is to make you happy and contented, and precious, the only way I can prove it to you is to do what I have to do when you come. In the mean time, sweetheart, let it suffice that I love, love, love you, with all my heart and soul.

As for myself, darling, I am getting along fairly well, but am sorry to write that my "tummy" is on the blink, good and proper. Am following your advice as much as possible. Seem to have a satisfied feeling, but know its not natural, for when I'm hungry and go in to eat, my stomach seems to turn upside down and there you are. Sure do hope it passes over. I believe its the restaurant stuff that made my "tummy" that way.

As for business, honey, its still "agoin". I received a letter from the attorney from the coca cola people and believe we will come to some sort of a settlement. Sure do hope that I get some money out of it. I am ready to file my other suit, the divorce suit I got just the day before yesterday. As I have so often written, it will just have to take its time, and then you will see the way business will be coming along. Can't come any too soon, can it?

How are you feeling, darling mine? You don't answer that question, somehow. Won't forget to tell me just exactly how you feel, hear? Take good care of your darling self and remember ——— I hold you strictly accountable for what happens. The wonderful letter dear, I received to-day. Isn't he splendid, though? Will try and answer it in a few days.

Shall close now, honey love, hoping that to-morrow I will receive a nice big fat letter, with all my love, hugs, and kisses to you, my own darling little Wifie,

Ever lovingly your own lonesome
Shelby.

Only about 4 weeks more, love. — what then?
